THE PAST

After eight years of long and anxious waiting, we were freshmen, beginning a wonderful four year period known as high school. We spent all year getting accustomed to changing classes, having lockers of our own, making new friends, and meeting our faculty.

Our sophomore year was, as it seemed to us, one of increased school work; but at the same time, it was one of wonderful memories. Through the efforts of our newly organized School Spirit Club, there were large turnouts to help cheer our basketball team on to becoming District I, Group II, champions. As a perfect ending to the year, we held our never-to-be-forgotten sophomore dance.

Then when we look at our class rings, we remember our Junior year and our successful Halloween carnival. Always in our memories will be Mrs. Snelgrove, who worked diligently, along with the

Pyramid. Don
Holmes, Hunter
Ware, Scott Brown,
Claude Bell, Wilmot
Owens, Vincent Grayson, Frank Blackford,
Tommy Hall.

Class, to give our brilliant production of "South Pathetic." The days and weeks of hard practice were realized the night of the play. We were also busy trying to raise money for the Junior-Senior. Determined to make it the best, we sponsored cake sales, had dances after the games, sold pennants, and, of course, sold magazines. We worked hard, but had fun, and success was our reward.

The climax of our high school years came when we marched into the auditorium as seniors, and the underclasses stood. That year was filled with busy plans for the "Blackouts" and college. Graduation came at last, and each of us proudly received his diploma.

So as the curtain, which was our Senior gift, comes down on these wonderful years; it is to be hoped that we have made some worthwhile contribution to the history of our school.

THE FUTURE

Hello Folks:

This is your favorite television master of ceremonies, Bob Keville, bringing to you your favorite T.V. program over your favorite station WVBHS! Yes, Ladies and Gentlemen, sit back, relax, and enjoy "Around the World in Eighty Minutes." Each week we take a look at people and places around the world—and you just might see someone you know. So let's go.

Let's start today at that wonderful dreamland, Hollywood, California. Why, yes, I believe we're catching a glimpse of Peggy Dickerson, Hollywood's newest discovery, walking her french poodles. But wait, who is that that just happens to be blocking the sidewalk? Yes, it is Jim Jones, author of the great new book You Can do It, If You Try—So Try! And it surely looks like he's trying!

Now let's move on to that great State of Texas, where oil tycoon Bob Gormly is spending a busy afternoon dictating letters to all his refineries! Taking dictation is Peggy Alderman. Visiting Peggy is Stoneham Cooper, one of the foremost interior decorators in the U. S.

Now let's stop off at New Orleans Symphony Hall where Linda Williamson is giving her rendition of Mozart's "Fifth." In the audience we see that famous criminal lawyer Joe Buchanan. With him is Brenda Lovitt, who has now become an airline stewardess and flies non-stop all around the world!

Let's move on to Virginia where we catch a view of a dramatic scene in the operating room! Dr. George Meredith, accompanied by Nurse Marion Atwood, is performing a difficult operation on Virginia Ingram, who was teaching in one of the Virginia schools. Why, here we are in New York. Fuller Moore has made a big name for himself in the advertising business. There's Tommy Felton painting an advertisement of those famous T.V. stars Gloria Gurley and Deloris Laney.

In Mexico we see Beverly Bayne, reporter covering the story of El Toreador, Vincent Grayson. Vincent's manager and owner of the bulls, Tommy Camp, is standing near the bullpens.

South America is the home of the coffee plantations. Cameraman Jon Rice is photographing some of Manley Grimstead's plantations while assistant Wilmot Owens looks on. Manley's rival in business is Janet Hunt, the country's richest lady executive.

Africa challenges many people. For instance, in the deepest darkest corner we find Ellen Ackiss, missionary to the headhunters. An equally dangerous task is that done by big game hunter Joe Wool! Now we find Becky Johnson and Marsha May, who are joint owners of the only Snack Shop in the Sahara Desert. Drinking a Pepsi is John Young, the great architect who designed King Ewip's pyramid—and a beautiful job, if I might say so.

We move on to Paris, France. Mademoiselle Greta Spuler is having her spring fashion show. Models Judy Kane and Jerry McClanan are showing the latest fashions of designer Lynn Rothwell. While in Europe we are just in time to catch the show at the exclusive Spanish restaurant owned by E. W. Scruggs. Why it's Jean Eggleston, who has conquered the art of the Spanish dance.

In Germany we find Wendy Brown, foreign correspondent talking over foreign policy with Helen Wible, her secretary. Moving on to India, we see Linda Fentress, collector of precious stones, and Betsy Falconer negotiating a sale. Betsy has become interested in a collection since her good fortune in the ivory business. Her chief elephant hunter, Ivory Joe Edward Hobeck, has really hit the bullseye.

In Russia we find Betsy Southerland and Frank Gattis, world famous mad scientists trying to perfect a new misguided missile.

China has offered many opportunities to different people. Fay Salmon and Margaret Beasley successfully own and operate a Chinese "Howard Johnson's." Responsible for putting fortunes in the fortune cookies is Mary Robin White.

In Japan we find David Hobeck, who has been very successful with his used ricksha lot. Willie Mae Hewitt, Dave's secretary, always has plenty to do.

In Australia we'll stop long enough to see the Woman's Olympic champion ice skater, Susan Griggs, practice. Billy Allen and Tommy Frazier have done very well in furniture manufacturing there.

Moving on up to Alaska, we see Admiral Don Holmes rubbing noses with the Eskimos. This drums up business for Claude Bell, who has a trading post there. Don and Claude have interests also in a fishery where Allen Connell is the supervisor. Allen's staff includes Lynn Bruner, secretary; LaCena Fatton, in charge of sardines; and Doris Perry, in charge of all the other fish.

Canada contains many things, among them Kip Moore and Ed Rosenbaum, who, due to circumstances beyond their control, had to leave the U. S. It seems Wayne Stamey, revenue officer was hot on their trail. Also in Canada we see that famous girl quartet—Beth Watson, Judy White, Georgianna Kidd, and Barbara Steuerlein, who are still touring Canada. They just received the twentieth gold record and are heading for the twenty-first!

Well, everyone, here we are back in our own studio. And here's our president of the network Warfield Leeke, who will introduce to you your new announcer. Why it's Sue Williams—but what has she got that I haven't got? Now that was a silly question wasn't it?

Well—goodnite, Folks.

Tune in again—.

LAST WILL

- I, Ellen Ackiss, leave to Markle Costenbader my position as alternate cheerleader. Cheer hardy, Markle, and watch out for those jumps—they'll get you!!!
- I, Peggy Ann Alderman, leave to Amy Fuller my ability to graduate without getting caught for skipping classes throughout my senior year.
- I, Billy Allen, leave to Bobby Simpson my book of corridor passes.
- I, Marian Atwood, leave to Marion Brugh my quiet personality.
- I, Beverly Bayne, leave to Pat Grayson my ability to have . . . Parties!!
- I, Margaret Beasley, leave to Felisa Bromley my ability to write SHORTHAND in longhand, and in English.
- I, Claude Bell, leave to P. B. White my honor of being the biggest moocher in the Senior Class.
- I, Wendy Brown, leave to Brenda Clark, Marriane Waikee, and Pat Gilliam my tales of adventurous travels so you can fascinate classmates.
- I, Lynn Bruner, leave my straight hair to Ginny Twine as I'm sure she is tired of nightly pin-ups.
- I, Joe Buchanan, leave to Eddie Bonney my special built-in radar glasses, which were left to me by Alfred Cross, who received them from Dean Wyrick, who got them from Don Moss.
- I, Tommy Camp, leave to Daniel Davis, Mariano Rojas, Harold Bowden, Ann Hubiac, and Linda St. Germain the loudest problem of all, my station wagon. I leave it to all of you because it will take at least 5 strong bodies to budge it!
- I, Allen Connell, leave to Don Hill my excess weight to help carry him through the next year.
- I, Stoneham Cooper, leave my leopard skin Capesio's to Mary Howell if she has nerve enough to wear them.
- I, Peggy Dickerson, leave to Judy Tarbell my ability to date the President of the S.C.A.
- I, Jean Eggleston, leave to Lee Telton (my grey) "OZZIE OLDSMOBILE" in hopes that it gets her away from school at lunch time more often than it did me.
- I, Betsy Falconer, leave my glasses to Carolyn Sykes, to be used only when she wants to look studious (or see something).
- I, La Cena Fatton, leave Davis Gray my carpet-bagger Yankee father's ambition.
- I, Tommy Felton, leave to Judy Vanture my notebook full of abstract ideas, in hope that she finds it as useful as I have in escaping from classes.
- I, Linda Fentress, leave to Ann Wallace my "Tokoyo Rose" voice, in hopes that she will impress more people than I did.
- I, Tommy Frazier, leave to Bobby Wainwright and Shelly Smyth my books in hopes that they'll do you more good than they did me.
- I, Frank Gattis, leave to Norman Morse all of my scholastic and athletic ability, although I doubt that he will need the scholastic ability.
- I, Bob Gormly, leave to Skip Jones my beautiful legs that were left to me by Harold James, who inherited them from Brian Zittrain, who acquired them from Kermit Scarborough, who got them from Sonny Halstead who started the whole thing.
- I, Vincent Grayson, leave to Mike Gregory the "Gray Bomb" hoping that he can keep gas in it.
- I, Susan Griggs, leave talkaticity to Alyce Savage . . . one reminder . . . life is so short when one has so much to say.
- I, Manley Grimstead, leave to Teddy Newton my desire to graduate from Virginia Beach High School.
- I, Gloria Gurly, leave to Donna Young my government book hoping that she will learn more than I did.
- I, Willie Mae Hewitt, leave to Dianna Hollis my famous place at lunch time hoping that she will enjoy it as much as I did.
- I, David Hobeck, leave to Roger Paro, and Tommy Gones the position of head film runner to get you out of classes, too.
- I, Edward Hobeck, leave, to anyone who wants them, my keys to the Concession Stand and all the headaches that go with them.
- I, Don Holmes, leave my vacant position as first tenor in Mr. Miller's New York chorus to Norman Lucas. This prize position was left to me by David Sanderlin, who inherited it from Jim Howren.
- I, Janet Hunt, leave to Rosalie Cherry the I.B.M. in hopes that she may get the "Beachcomber" out on time more often than I did.
- I, Virginia Ingram, leave to Linda Kades my red toothbrush and Ipana toothpaste, so that she can brush her teeth after lunch, too.

AND TESTAMENT

- I, Becky Johnson, leave to Peggy Moore my ability to get involved in the most embarrassing situations, and hope that she will be able to find the way out.
- I, David Johnson, leave Charles Krummell, Nicky Michaels, and Carry Holland, my position as hall monitor at lunch time.
- I, Jim Jones, leave to Jimmy Horton my private collection of "Little Richard" records. Quick! Buy a HI-FI.
- I, Judy Kane, HAPPILY give away to Ann Galliard that embarrassing ability of mine to say the "dumbest things at the darnedest times"—Ann, you lucky girl, you!
- Let it be known that on this 8th day of June, I, Bob Keville, leave to Harry Skipper my well-kept delivery wagon hoping that he keeps it well-fed with gas.
- I, Georgianna Kidd, leave to Rosalie Kelsey my ability to talk on the telephone for hours, (and hope that she is never unfortunate enough to have a party line).
- I, Deloris Laney, leave to Brenda Gunn my talent for making "A" in band.
- I, Warfield Lecke, leave to Tuck Finley my ability to look alert while sleeping through class.
- I, Brenda Lovitt, leave my ability to eat and eat and not gain weight to any Junior who has trouble reducing.
- I, Marsha May, will my over-abundance (?) of energy to Kathy Tignor.
- I, Jerry McClanan, leave to Gee Tucker my height.
- I, George Meredith, leave to Billy Rainy my ability (?) to catch passes.
- I, Fuller Moore, leave, regretfully, to Wesley Pallett my ability to own eight (8) different automobiles in the course of two years and still not have one that runs.
- I, Kip Moore, leave my front row, three dollar assembly seat, which was willed to me by Charles Meachum, which was willed to him by David Watts, to Mike Folck.
- I, Wilnot Owens, leave to Mike Smithers and Tommy Woodhouse the honor of having your name spelled wrong everytime. (I'll bet it's even spelled wrong here too!)
- I, Doris Perry, leave to Timmy Perry my ability to get out of high school.
- I, Jack Rice, leave to Bob Bennett the key to the dark room hoping that you will have more fun in there than I did.
- I, Eddie Rosenbaun, leave to Larry Everett an ability to get out of school to go on different trips and conventions. Have fun, I did.
- I, Lynn Rothwell, leave to Ralph Johnson a new set of tires. In hopes his car squeals as good as mine.
- I, Fay Salmon, leave to Jane Meredith my voice with a smile and two shares of telephone stock which was left to me by Martha Ward in hopes that she may keep the home wires burning better than I did.
- I, E. W. Scruggs, leave to Murray Talley my chair in the Principal's office!
- I, Betsy Southerland, leave to all the upcoming solid geometry students (?) Mr. Coulthard! Be kind to him, kids!
- I, Greta Spuler, leave to Jay Wood a big puff of wind in hopes that his car may fly along like my "Catastrophe."
- I, Wayne Stamey, leave to Steve Salle a book and a match, have fun.
- I, Barbara Steuerlein, leave to Carolyn Culverhouse my ability to try and stay in tune with the piano in chorus.
- I, Beth Watson, leave to Sandra James my ability to be the "Big Talk" in hopes her senior year will be as much fun as mine was.
- I, Judy White, leave to Peggy Barco my leaky fountain pen in hopes that she too may be able to take illegible government notes.
- I, Mary Robin White, leave to Allison Allen, my wonderful? ability to tell "Hepster" jokes in hopes her efforts will be more appreciated by her classmates than mine.
- I, Helen Wible, leave to Larry Keech my government book in hopes he can get better use from it than I ever did.
- I, Sue Williams, leave my gift package of Pepsi-soaked tooth picks to Diane Norris.
- I, Linda Williamson, leave my candelabra and position of second soprano in the Teen Tones to Butch Mundy. Gargle well!
- I, Joe Wool, leave to Anthony Katsias my shoulder pads in the hope that he may use them more than I.
- I, John David Young, will my hidden talents to Walter Ben Young, in hopes that he may find them.

STUDENT COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION

President—Bob Keville, Vice-President—Kip Moore, Secretary—Sue Williams, Treasurer—Judy Vanture.

The 1957-58 Student Cooperative Association, headed by Bob Keville and his fellow officers, has been the backbone of student life at Virginia Beach High School this year. The Beach Bowl festivities, the dances and the assemblies that the students have enjoyed were all products of the S. C. A.'s planning.

Sponsored projects this year have been, The United Communities Drive, the clean-up campaign and the organization of the Inter Club Council.

Without the interest and participation of the students, themselves and Miss McDowell the S. C. A. could not have done such a fine job.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

To kick off the magazine campaign, the S. C. A. sponsored "Keep A Knockin'" skit. Super school girl Judy Vanture gives pitch to "Little Richard" Tarrall. Baby Sue Williams is watching from her high chair.

Bob Keville presents a certificate of achievement to Bob Williams, high salesman of the school's S. C. A. sponsored magazine campaign, as Miss Hamrick, the faculty sponsor, and the other top salesmen look on. Jane Keenoy was second high. Beverly Coates was 3rd high and Billy Pinkham was 4th high.

INTER CLUB COUNCIL

The Inter Club Council, new this year, is composed of the school clubs as well as the out of school organizations of which our students are members. Its representatives consist of the presidents of the respective clubs.

Its main objective is to improve the individual clubs. The clean-up campaign in February was its outstanding project. Heading this organization are Kip Moore, president, and Joan Vaughn, recording secretary.

FOOTBALL

Coach George Tepo's Seahawk football team this year, being composed almost entirely of inexperienced boys, compiled a 2-8-0 record. With approximately two-thirds of the 1956 championship team lost through graduation there were only three returning first string boys to work with Coach Tepo and the other coaches to develop a good squad. In spite of this setback, the Seahawk spirit remained undaunted.

Next year, with a number of promising boys coming up from Jay-Vee and the valuable experience that this years' boys developed, the Seahawks are looking forward to a high place on the list of standings.

The Virginia Beach High School basketball team, led by co-captains Vincent Grayson and Bob Gormly, compiled a greatly improved record and entered the district tournament in a two way tie with the Great Bridge Wildcats for first place. Coach Bob Coulthard contributed much time and effort while working the Seahawks back into the first rate team to which Virginia Beach had been accustomed. Testing their strength on Group I schools this year the Seahawks downed the Suffolk Red Raiders once and the Princess Anne Cavaliers twice. The first Princess Anne game was won for the Seahawks by a half-court jump shot by co-captain Vince Grayson which ended the game. The last buzzer sounded just after the ball left Grayson's hand, thus ending the tie and giving the Seahawks a 46 to 44 victory. Virginia Beach triumphed at the second meeting of the two teams and ended the hopes of the Cavaliers for a reversed decision. Keville, Grayson, and Gormly, first string seniors, will be missed greatly next year. All three boys played exceptionally fine for the Seahawks.

Enter a new age of LADY-LIKE shopping

You hardly lift

a finger as you

waltz through the

NEW Woman-designed

COLONIAL STORES

shopping!

Naturally we women love the new lady-like approach to shopping in the Colonial Store . . . we planned it that way! Our store is beautiful but efficient . . . bright, pretty, clean, comfortable. The floor plan is so wide open and well-designed that we choose our own direction and set our own pace, fast or leisurely.

Shelves are lower . . . so we don't have to stretch. Shelf-tops are cleared . . . so we can see over them to locate shopping areas quickly. Every cart has a new-style directory, showing even WHICH SIDE of which counter holds the item we want. Self-service meat displays, produce bins, frozen food chests are all much shallower to fit our feminine reach . . . everything at our fingertips! Aisles are wide, clear, clean . . . displays neat and orderly . . . foods stocked more compactly . . . there's a "place for everything and everything in its place". In short, we women have brought our basic ideas of Decorating Beauty, Good Housekeeping, and Working Conveniences into the grocery store!

It costs no more to shop "first class" at Colonial. You simply have a better time . . . while saving your money!

Your total food bill is LESS when you shop at CS!
